

Requirements for Housing Application Individual Assessment

If you do not meet our eligibility criteria as outlined in our Housing Policies and Procedures; you may request an Individual Assessment of adult sex offender status and/or your rental history, mortgage or references. This Individual Assessment will be accepted and reviewed anonymously by a panel of staff. Personal information will be redacted for all applicants. No further appeal of their final decision will be allowed.

To request an Individual Assessment, you must provide the documents listed below. There is no maximum to the number of documents you may submit, and it is recommended that you submit as many documents as required to fully explain your sex offender status and/or rental history.

You will have 72 hours to return the necessary forms to Capitol Hill Housing from time of notification of denial. The panel of staff review Individual Assessments weekly.

Please check off the documents that you have included in your Individual Assessment Application packet.
